MILLER IS FINED.

Crack Jockey Pays $200 for Bumping in Last Race at Oakland.

San Francisco, Feb. 6 .- In the last race at Emeryville to-day, Grace G., man, Rather Royal. finished first, but the judges awarded the race to Ocean Shore, for being Sixth bumped by the latter horse. Miller rode Grace G., and claimed that he could Seventh r not keep his mount off Ocean Shore. Robert Mintor,

The judges thought differently, and in addition to taking away the race, fined Miller $200.

The track was in a drying-out condition and this made it difficult to pick the winners.

The $1,000 Handicap was taken by Proper, who had 116 pounds up. Tony Faust, who cut up very badly at the post, finished second. Logistilla ran disappointingly, but the track was ardly to her liking. Rubric kicked at the post and was pulled up.
